Dragons Guard A Reverse Harem

In my experience, good reverse harem romances are hard to write. A lot of the time the romance tends to swallow up the story and the plot seems to be an afterthought. This wasn't the case with Dragon's Guard.

Dragon's Guard (The Dragon Shifter's Mates, #1) by Eva Chase suggested another dragon reverse harem book. Unfortunately, I found this one quite a bit less fun. An orphaned street kid, Ren's life has finally started to turn around a bit as she has a real job, and finally the scratch, along with her best friend as roommate, to rent a real apartment.

"Dragons understand that they'll have to share. Especially in the past couple of decades, with our reproduction problems and all that. That makes it sound so clinical, but the truth is, it's actually really complicated. Sometimes the woman loves one guy more than the rest. Or maybe, she doesn't love any of them.
