The Purpose of Pilgrimage: What is Your ... - A Sacred Journey

Just like an actual physical pilgrimage to a sacred site, a pilgrimage-in-place can unite us in the knowledge that we are taking a very real spiritual journey to the frontier of ourselves as others have done before us and will continue to do. In fact, when I do my pilgrimage-in-place, I include long, contemplative walks on a daily basis.

Furthermore, if we realize it is a pilgrimage, then our approach to this time could be the most powerful journey yet. So, the four reasons below not only layout these qualities of a pilgrimage, but also show us how to shift our attitude now so we can make the most of it. As we say in my recent pilgrimage and DocuSeries, The Road to Dharma:

tremendous, long term blessing on my life. In addition to many other intentions, I carried on my heart the desire to know and carry out well the vocation God was calling me to.

Pilgrimage: A Reflection on a Journey to Chartres ...

The inner journey of the pilgrimage affords us the opportunity to learn more about who—and whose—we are. I still dream about making a pilgrimage to a faraway place, but I won't forget that my real pilgrimage is a journey within, a journey of the mind and heart. And for that, I need not travel far at all.

Pilgrimage - definition of pilgrimage by The Free Dictionary

This is the story of my journey back to church after a 15 year hiatus. We'll start during the middle of my 7th grade year. The priest at my parish pulled me out into the hall during the middle of class. "Are you sure that you don't want to be a server anymore?" "I'm sure," I said. At the time, this was a very big deal.
