The Whites Of Their Eyes

"The whites of their eyes" The famous order "Don't fire until you see the whites of their eyes" was popularized in stories about the battle of Bunker Hill. It is uncertain as to who said it there, since various histories, including eyewitness accounts, [112] attribute it to Putnam, Stark, Prescott, or Gridley, and it may have been said first by one, and repeated by the others. [113]

xkcd: Whites of Their Eyes

Named after the supposed famous quote of Col. William Prescott in the Battle of Bunker Hill: "Don't fire 'til you see the whites of their eyes!" This was justified at the time because they were using notoriously inaccurate 18th-century muskets and they had almost no ammunition, so every bullet had to count.
