The Willow Tree is a novel written by Hubert Selby, Jr. and was published in 1998. It was Selby's first novel in twenty years, since 1978's Requiem for a Dream. Plot summary. The protagonist is a thirteen-year-old African American boy named Bobby who lives in an apartment in South Bronx with his mother and siblings. Despite his young age Bobby has intelligence that is superior to most of the people around him.

The Willow Tree (novel) - Wikipedia

The Willow Tree captures, uncomfortably, Selby's power over his readers. It came twenty years after his previous novel, Requiem for a Dream, a beautiful book, saturated with suffering and despair. Darren Aronofsky's film adaptation, jumpy and flashy as it was, somehow got it right. Here, Selby goes for something more subdued.
